The Great Removal Sale.

Having determined to close out our entire stock of goods in Gainesville by Nov. 30, We will put on sale our dress goods, boots, shoes, etc., at actual no intentions of closing out.

COST. NOW:

The prices have been put on our goods and time will prove what we say is true: When we say cost, we mean cost. No one will doubt but what we have the most complete stock of dry goods that was ever brought to Gainesville. The ladies have already found out that our prices are as we represent them and have shown their appreciation by buying while they can secure first choice.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

Or merchants who are not accustomed to going to the Eastern Markets will find it to their advantage in calling and seeing our goods before placing their orders elsewhere. So remember the place to come when you wish to spend your cash. Respectfully,

PORTER, PITCHFORD & CO.

The Outcast's Cry.

If I could weep as easily
As in my earlier years,
The first that morning's hour would Myself would quench in tears.

My heart is full of weary ache,
Yet burns no bitter hate,
For those whose vipers' tongue has laughed.

To me, each cruel fate,
Not, oh! the flame of self-reproach,
Unless by tear-drops drowned,
That burns to ashes hope and love,
Not easily is quenched.

We may for tears, sweet, cooling tears
With anguish face too deep,
For human eye to scan, and still
We have no power to weep.

Has God forsaken us? Oh, Christ!
Who heard the mourner's wail,
Savior of Mary Magdalene.

Most my petition fails,
No other arm as which to lean,
Will thou thyself withhold?
And leave me stricken in the hands
Of unfeeling law?

Nay, Savior, let me humbly melt
To penitential tears,
Thou wilt I scarce dare for the love
That covers my latest years.

What God Giveth a Boy.

A body to live in and keep clean and healthy, as a dwelling for his mind and a temple for his soul.

A pair of hands to use for himself and others, but never against others for himself.

A pair of feet to do errands of love and kindness and charity and business, but not to loiter in places of mischief or temptation or sin.

A pair of lips to keep pure and unpolluted by tobacco or whiskey, and to speak true, kind, brave words, but not to make a smokestack of a or a snail trough.

A pair of ears to hear the music of bird and tree and rill and human voice, but not to give heed to what the serpent says, or to what dis-honors God or his mother.

A pair of eyes to see the beautiful, the good and the true—God's finger-prints in the flower and field and snow—
—-but not to feast on muck and pictures or to be blinded which Satan daubs and calls pictures.

A mind to remember and reason and decide and store up wisdom and impart it to others, but not to be turned into a chip basket or rubbish heap for the cliff and the rubbish and sweepings of the world's state wit.

A soul as pure and spotless as a new fallen snowflake, to receive impressions of good and to develop faculties of powers and virtues which shall shape it day by day, as the artist's chisel shapes the stone, into the image and likeness of Jesus Christ.

About the Dollar Mark.

There are several theories to account for the origin of our dollar mark ($). First—Some say it is a combination or monogram composed of the letters U and S, the initials of the United States. Second—It may have been derived from "H. S.", the mark of the Roman money unit. Third—It is probably a combination of P. and S.,
from Pseudoro, a Spanish term signifying "hard dollar." A fourth reason assigned is that it is a "piece of eight," and designed by the symbol 8.

The World's Fair Tests
showed no baling powder
so pure or so good in leavening power as to Royal.

The Twin Parties.

Strange things sometimes transpire. To read the Eagle one would naturally think the republicans hated the democrats, and would be reformers of all Populists who contend the seat of the democrats, whether or not it was just for them to do so.

Still, when we glance at the election returns of the 9th Congressional District, we find that all the republican counties in the district went overwhelmingly democratic. In addition to this, the republican papers all over the nation, are now praising the democratic party vociferously.

The fact is, they are afraid it (the democratic party) will die on their hands, and is such event they will have no local wing, sailing under false colors, with which to fight the Populists.

They do not want to see the line
clearly drawn between Plutocracy and real Jeffersonian Democracy.

The sham article is the delight of their souls.

We told the people in our initial number, that they were one and the same party, fighting over a sham tariff fence, which they called the dividing line.

When the democrats went into power they took a few rails of the tariff fence; only a few!

They carried out the republicans financial policy. They killed silver at one stroke. They have given the Silyclops $100,000,000 of 5 per cent bonds. They have fostered every monopoly throughout the land, and proved hostile to labor.

They have increased the purchasing power of money by cutting off the supply which reduced the prices of products, which has added 100 per cent. to our hardships.

No wonder the republicans are friendly to them! The republicans are friendly to anything that is against the South and West; that will reduce the price of labor and the price of farm products.

No sir! This humbug party, must be kept alive, and if corporation money and mean liquor can wrench
it from the jaws of death on election days, it will live on!

"The party is at stake,"—comes from every quarter! "Then administer the medicine," is sounded back,— "We will foot the bills."

But the free use of money and whiskey on election days will not keep the old parties in power.

The situation is reduced to this.
Each of the old parties have been tried and found wanting. The day of awakening has come. The voter no longer finds anything original in the words republican and democratic. Rhetoric and declamation have been so often substituted for performance and service, that the country has grown tired and critical.

This does not mark a temporary reaction. It marks a stage of political development among the common people, the depressed class. It means that the country is becoming educated; that it is going to take matters in its own hands, and manage its own affairs, which in its last analysis, means death to each of the old parties, and a thorough trial of the People's Party—Farmers Outlook.

Dalhousie Signal.

DAHLONEGA, DEC. 7, 1894.

Entered at the Dalhousie, Ga. P. O., as second class matter.

Congress convened last Monday. There are five candidates for Mayor in Cordele, Ga.

The Georgia Legislature adjourned first of next week.

Another populist was unseated in the legislature last week.

The present legislature don't seem to want to give the militia any special act at all this session.

A report call for a national populist convention has been made to convene in St. Louis this week.

A negro murdered a white man named Leigh and shot his daughter near Newman one night last week.

It is said that president Cleveland and secretary Carlisle are both against the ten per cent bank tax.

The bondsmen of Jim McIntyre, who is charged with whipping in Gilmer county some time ago, have given him up.

Adolphus Duncan the negro convicted of criminally assaulting Mrs. M. C. Sanders some time ago, has been sentenced to be hanged in Atlanta on Jan. 11th, 1895.

Governor Atkinson has made his appointments among them are J. S. Turner, of Putnam, principal keeper of the penitentiary, P. D. Pollock, of Bibb, State school commissioner, principal physician of the penitentiary, Dr. Thomas N. McIntosh, of Thomas.

There is a law in Georgia that in each year shall be set apart and consecrated to the service of the state school commissioner shall cause the public schools of the state to observe the day as the superintendent and teachers may think best. In obedience to this law tomorrow is declared a legal holiday in the public schools.

Kob and Gates have both been sworn in as Governor of Alabama. Kob occupies the inside of the capitol and Kob the outside. He made an effort to gain admittance to the capitol soon as he was sworn in but was prevented by city police who stood at the entrance. After being refused admittance to the capitol he mounted a wagon in front of the building and made a speech and then returned.

The grand jury of Union county has reported a number of indictments in cases that have been before them during this term of the court. A strong effort is being made by populists on the jury to indict some democratic managers of election precincts for conducting the elections on a fraudulent system, and up to this writing no bills have been returned. They are also trying to indict other democrats for what they claim as an intimidation of voters by use of abusing terms and furnishing them whiskey and money.

A remarkable incident occurred in Wilkes Superior court last week. Frank Brooks, colored, was before the court on two separate and distinct charges of burglary. One case was argued and the jury retired to make up their verdict. Then the other case was taken up and given to another jury. Both juries were out at the same time considering a similar charge against the same man. The first jury hung fire for a day or two and never did agree. The second jury promptly acquitted the prisoner.

Atlanta Journal: The order of Gov. Atkinson issued yesterday, in accordance with which several negro porters at the capitol were dropped, removes a familiar figure from the office of secretary of state, that of Robert Cole. Twelve years ago Bob was appointed porter by Hon. Nathan C. Barnett, the then venerable secretary of state. During the remaining years of the old man's life Bob served him faithfully and was one of the sincerest mortals at his death. When Gen. Phil Cook, the old hero of the confederacy, was appointed in his place, Bob was retained and he soon learned to love the genial gentleman he served, as did every body else who came in contact with him. As Bob had seen his former employer pass over the river, so he saw the general go to join the great majority gone on before. When Col. Allen D. Candler, the present secretary of state, was appointed by Gov. Northern, Bob was again successful in holding his job, and it was a great shock to him and a source of sincere regret to his white friends that he should have been dropped off.

Death of Ex-Gov. Joseph B. Brown.

We condole with the people of Georgia over the death of Georgia's distinguished citizen, Ex-Gov. Jos. B. Brown, whose life was notable as one of the greatest men both public and private, that ever attained eminent statesmanship in Georgia.

On the afternoon of Nov. 30th, 1894, at 2:30 o'clock, the spirit of this great man took its flight into eternity, never more to tread the paths of life in his noble characteristics.

His life was one of an eventful career—from poverty to wealth, and eminent statesmanship that point to one of the greatest political and financial manipulators that the world, by its nature, ever produced.

The Ex-Gov. Ex-Chief Justice, Ex-Senator of Georgia, had been feeble for many months, and his death was not unexpected by the watchers by his bed-side. The night before his death he slept well and partook of a hearty breakfast the next morning, and so vigorous at times it was hoped by his loved ones that perhaps he might survive for months or perhaps a year, but this was only a clinging hope which is always nurtured for a friend when in the jaws of death, until the last breath leaves the body, and leaves us to realize our sad griefs for our departed ones.

The passing away that afternoon was calmer than the cloudless winter day outside the window of the death chamber. He seemed in sleep, yet was dead. The sign of no pain shot about the patriarch's face nor did muscle quiver as he crossed the river—his passing was as serene as the peace of heaven. It was like the fading of a wreath of mist in the evening. With his children and grand-children about him, in complete peace and surpassing calm, he lay down to sleep the sleep that knows no waking.

The biographical sketches given in the Atlanta papers are long and portray every point of the character and statesmanship of the chief, and as a history to be handed down to all generations to come no better record could be produced to be read by young men seeking distinction and honor.

Gov. Brown was born in Pickens district, S. C., on the 14th of April, 1831, and was, therefore, 70 years of age at his birthday. He was one of the eleven children of Mackey Brown, being the eldest child. Before he was grown his father moved to Gadsden, Union county, Ga. At the age of 19 he left home and began seeking an education—every year thereafter being the condition by teaching school. He became a lawyer in 1845. Three years after his admission to the bar he was elected State Senator, where he distinguished himself among the great political leaders of the state. In 1855 he became Judge of the Blue Ridge Circuit. June 15th, 1857, he was nominated by the democratic convention for Governor, and continued Governor until the war and during the war until April 1865 when he was arrested and carried to Washington.

The deceased was a member of the Board of Trustees of the N. O. A. College, at which institution many young men are receiving his beneficent donation to help them obtain an education. On Monday, during the Ex-Governors funeral there were no recitations at the college and the flag was at half mast.

He was always a great friend to young men—ready at all times by kind words and money to help them on their progressive path in life, and as our remembrance of the many lives of kindness from his hands when they were struggling to help ourselves and country to recover from the devastations of war. May his body rest in peace and his soul be rewarded for his many noble traits of character.

Monroe News: Monday Jim Stephens, colored, was drawing water from Dr. J. T. Van Horn's well preparatory to walling it up with brick. He decided to go down in the well to see how much more water there was, but as the bucket swung out over the well, the bucket came unhooked, and both boy and bucket were not long in falling the bottom. Fortunately, there were several feet of water, and he stepped in it to be let down. The well was 52 feet deep and the fall would have most surely resulted in his death, but for the water, and his escape is even strange as it is.

Ministers Appointed.

The following is the appointments of the Dalhousie District recently made by the Methodist Conference at Rome:

M. L. Underwood, presiding elder; Dalhousie, T. C. Belterton, G. Hughes, superintendent; Lumpkin, W. A. C. Baker, Cleveland, W. A. Simmons, Clayton, W. L. Singleton, Blairsville, E. G. D. Danagan, Ellijay, J. C. Atkinson, A. J. Hitcherson, supply; Jasper, G. W. Egan, Dawsonville, F. R. Seaborn; Clarksville, C. M. Ledbetter; Young Harris, Loy Warwick, Blue Ridge, G. D. Stone; Union Harris, college, W. F. Roberson; Mossy Creek academy, W. A. Simmons; Blue Ridge school, E. G. D. Danagan; Danversville mission, W. R. Sullivan, supply; Porter Springs, C. C. Spence; Union Cane mission, T. C. Hughes, supply; Ball Ground, J. T. Erwin.

Since the above appointments the following changes have been made. Rev. Wm. A. Parks, who was assigned to Greensboro station, goes to Dahlonega station, while Rev. T. C. Belterton, who was at Dahlonega, goes to Greensboro.

Good News.

From the St. Louis Republic (Dem.) we clip the following:

"NATIONAL POPULIST VOICE. New York, Nov. 25.—The World of tomorrow will give its last show, the number of votes cast by the populist party in all the states at the last general election, as compared with the votes cast by the same party in 1892. The World will also say:

"In 1892 the populist party polled 1,041,284 votes for president. Between 1892 and 1894 there was no general election, the returns of which can be compared with the year preceding. This year the vote was 1,036,000, a gain of nearly 600,000 votes in two years."

Some days ago we used the estimates of the New York Outlook, a conservative non-partisan paper, in which it was shown that the Republican party had not gained on its 1892 vote in the elections of 1894. That the Democrats had lost 13,000, that the Democrats had lost a million, and that the Populists had gained upward of 300,000. We preferred to use these figures because we felt that they were well within the lines of safety; and they were sufficiently encouraging to satisfy us with the result of the election of the actual returns. From the foregoing extract, it will be seen that the New York World is the first paper to publish the official figures of the Populist vote.

The World is a democratic organ and what it admits in our favor may be taken as true.

Therefore when it says that we gained 600,000 votes in 1894 over our vote of 1892, and when you bear in mind that we did previous title of the Counting at either of the elections, you can form a very good idea of Populists growth.

Remember that although the Republicans carried the country over, when they did not increase the popular vote. They won because the Democrats had lost enough votes to find behind them, and the Peoples Party had not, gained sufficiently to pass them.

In 1892 Cleveland was elected President, though he was heavily behind the combined vote of the Republicans and the Populists.

In 1894 the Democrats annihilated the Democrats, yet their vote is heavily behind the combined vote of the Democrats and the Populists.

In 1894 the Democrats lost a million votes, but the Republicans did not get them.

The Republicans, with all their exertions and their advantages were only able to hold the same vote they received in 1892.

The Peoples Party, without advantages, without money, with few newspapers and little organization, was nevertheless the only party which increased its vote.

Is not this a most significant fact?—Press.

Pure blood is absolutely necessary in order to enjoy perfect health. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood and strengthens the system.

WHEN OTHERS FAIL Hood's Sarsaparilla cures on the battered system by giving vigorous action to the digestive organs, creating an appetite and purifying the blood. It is pure and unadorned medicine, possessing the greatest curative powers, and has the most wonderful record of actual cures of any medicine in existence. This only Hood's.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, and do not purge, pain or grip.

Why Not a King.

What other government is more absolutely in the power of its executive than that of the United States. In which of the great governments of earth does its executive arrogate and put in force more despotic power than President Cleveland. The question, "Why not a king?" is not entirely out of place under present conditions, and is one that he asked not infrequently in the near future.

We say, in all candor, that these first twenty months of President Cleveland's administration have been filled with usurpations of power and violations of the constitution and statutes of this nation that would have driven from the throne every crowned head in Europe, and ended the administration of that France and Switzerland. In none of the great nations of the old world could such high-handed and flagrant outrages have been committed without being followed by a bloody revolution.

A President Cleveland should be impeached, and the coming congress will find in their duty unless some action looking toward this end is taken. With the usurpations of the judiciary and the executive lunging like a deadly incubus over the people we again ask, "Why not a king?" National Economist.

The U. S. Gr't Reports show Royal Baking Powder superior to all others.

It is thought now that some other man besides Mr. Black will be nominated to run against Mr. Watson—probably Mr. Walsh.

The Judgement on Hood's Pronounced by Squire Fogg.

The following testimonial comes from T. M. Fogg, Esq., who is well-known throughout Kentucky as a lawyer and judge, and was for many years a member of the Kentucky bar.

"I will say for Hood's Sarsaparilla, I believe it to be the best medicine in the world. In the winter of '92 I had a bad case of the grip which left my system in a very bad shape. I tried everything I could find and get no relief. In the fall of the same year I bought a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. The first dose...

Made a Decided Change For the better. When I began taking the first bottle my weight was 127 pounds, the highest since childhood. By the time the second bottle had been used my weight was 165 pounds.

Shoes

Every pair of shoes that is branded "G. P. E. Shoes" is warranted not to rip, wear, fade, split, tear, shrink up on the sides, burst out at the toe, or give way at the heel. If they do with reasonable wear, a new pair will be furnished free.

In addition to our warranted Shoes we have an immense stock of Men's, Women's, Misses, Boy's and Children's Shoes—all at low tariff prices.

Jeans, Cassimers, Flannels, Blankets.

The tariff bill struck this department right between the eyes and floored the prices. Our 15, 20, 25, and 30c Jeans was 20 per cent higher last season.

Cassimers, Flannels, Blankets, etc., are of still more.

Dalhousie Signal.

DAHLOUGA, DEC. 7, 1894.

Cap. R. S. Asbury, of White county, spent Tuesday in Dalhousie.

Mr. Chandler McDougall has moved from this county to Bartlettville, Ga.

Notice of Ordinary in another column for the establishment of a new road in Yahola district.

Last Monday there were ten voters and nine candidates at Mill Creek district where the tax collector had made an appointment to receive taxes.

Did you see little Joe Walden while he was in town the other day wearing that broad smile caused by the appearance of a large fine girl at his house?

The report that Marion Monroe, who was serving a lifetime sentence in the penitentiary from Dawson county, being pardoned some months ago, is a mistake.

Last Saturday night a colored woman drank so much of the "overjoy" that she fell by the wayside and was found lying on the streets Sunday morning.

Judge Williams has just completed the repairs on the Yahola bridge and says he will commence work on the Bearden's bridge as soon as the lumber can be had.

We were shown some nice specimens of gold ore the other day taken from the property of Mr. A. F. Stow, lying near town. Mr. Stow says that the vein is large and easy to work.

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. M. C. Healand, who went from this county to Texas some years ago. He was at work in a well on the 13th ult. and suffocated caused from gas.

Luna Healand, who left this county some time ago for Jackson to better his condition, is moving back to Lumpkin where he can make corn, which is much more profitable than 5 cent cotton.

Mr. Charley Lyle, one of the old first Georgia Volunteers, of Gainesville, spent Monday night in Dalhousie. We are always glad to meet up with any of the old soldiers who went to the front in time of danger.

Last week a boy voters age was changed on the census report of 1880 so as to make him much older than his eldest brother. Whoever changed it must have been intoxicated for they say it appears on the book now he is nearly old enough for his own grand daddy.

Martha Williams, who is confined in jail at this place, under a peace warrant, attempted to make her escape Saturday night by leaving while being permitted to carry some wood up into the jail. As soon as sheriff Brookshire discovered her absence he went in search and found her sitting on a stump a mile or so above town taking a rest. She was escorted back to prison where she will remain until some legal disposition is made of her and will hereafter have her word carried up to her.

When the insolvent list of tax defaulters is made out every year each name should be recorded by the tax collector in a book and kept in the ordinary's office as the law directs, for the inspection of those interested, and when a list is paid off let it be credited by said officer, giving the date. Not allow Dick Tom and Harry to have the use of these list and present such ones as they desire to the managers of an election when they see that a person is going to vote against them or some of their friends. If a list was presented to voters last Saturday when they had their receipts in their pockets, and would have been prevented from voting had they been lost.

THOUSANDS OF CURES. Send for booklet of wonderful cures, and learn the best remedy. Botanic Blood Balm stands at the head. Price only $1.00 per large bottle. For sale by druggists. Send for free book and learn wisdom. Address: Red Bull Co., Atlanta, Ga. Nov. 23.

Dr. Jones is repairing his office.

Col. Dean, of Gainesville attended Sheriff's sales in Dalhousie last Tuesday.

A great deal of property was disposed of by the sheriff last Tuesday, all bringing very good prices.

Mr. Ransom Free was married to Miss Sallie Norrell last Sunday evening by Rev. C. H. Higgins.

Rev. C. M. Ledbetter, who has been preaching at Dalhousie for the past year, left for Clarksville Wednesday morning.

Some nice butter with a clean rag over the vessel containing it, could be sold very readily in Dalhousie just now.

A gentleman from Kansas, who was in Dalhousie last Saturday, said that our town didn't look much like a dry place on that day.

This week a farmer who hauled a load of turnips from Fannin county found them dull sale in Dalhousie at twenty-five cents per bushel.

In order to meet bills in market I will sell clothing at greatly reduced prices for the next thirty days. Dec. 7, 1894. J. F. Moore.

A little child of Rev. Wesley Stargel fell on the floor while playing at the residence of Josiah Stargel Friday, and broke one of its thighs.

Cadet Benoit, who has been kicked about two months, is worse and is not expected to live long unless there is a considerable change.

The chief editor has been making some repairs on his residence this week and has proven himself to be a pretty fair carpenter, that is, preparing the foundation for a pillar.

Mr. J. T. Brown, the harness maker, is a good deal of amusement to the boys by his electrical powers in making a stick stand alone on the floor and many other such tricks.

Since the contest a year ago the law has been changed in reference to municipal contests and instead of being tried before a Judge the one which takes place in a few days will be before Ordinary Williams.

We notice that Mr. J. H. Asbury was married to Miss Irene Lambert on the 25th ult. at Clarksville, Ga. Mr. Asbury is one of the old Dalhousie college boys and we hope him and his young bride may live long and prosper.

NOTICE. All accounts due me not settled by the 1st day of January, 1895 in some manner will be placed in the hands of a collecting officer. So, to save cost make at once and settle. Respectfully, Dec. 7, 1894. J. F. Moore.

Rev. W. A. Parks, the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist church next town, was chaplain of the 52nd Ga. Regiment during the late war. He has many old comrades in Lumpkin who will be glad to meet him once more. Many of them have not seen him since the war.

Just as a lady was about to send for her husband to come to breakfast the other morning the cooking stove turned over and steak, biscuits, ham and coffee all went together and she had to get a new breakfast. This lady is now desiring a recipe to keep stoves from turning over.

We are informed that certain parties went to Capt. Ingersoll after Saturdays election and endeavored to have some of his hands discharged because they did not vote to please them. The Captain declined to comply with their request and the boys continue to be free men and still have a job.

OLD PEOPLE. Old people require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey or opium, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old People find it just what they need. Price 75 cents per bottle at E. C. Cartledge Druggist.

We are authorized to announce the name of Wm. Stringer as Tax Collector at the ensuing election in January.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Merchant Rider visited Clarksville this week.

Mr. W. C. Scott, of Cleveland, Ohio, spent election day in Dalhousie.

Gen. Murray is increasing the number of stamps at his pounding mill.

Mr. Wm. Stringer's announcement for tax collector appears in to-day's issue.

Mr. Robin Whitehead, of this county, has sold out and will move to the far edge of Hell.

We are engaged now in printing election tickets as cheap as the cheapest. Send in your orders.

A couple of colored men came up from Gainesville and organized a lodge of odd fellows Wednesday night.

A Christmas tree will likely be had at the Baptist church, as the little girls have already begun to get up money for the purpose.

Just as soon as one election comes off another one is ready. The next one is for ballot which comes off the first Saturday in next month.

Those that suggested that the repeal of the hog ordinance be left to a vote of the citizens were the first to "kick out of harness." New orders were issued which, of course had to be obeyed.

We heard a gentleman say this week that the grand jury should take some action and not allow a portion of the court house used to keep liquor in on election days for the use of voters.

It is thought by some that Prof. Dunn cannot hold the office of county surveyor if elected on account of not being a citizen of the county long enough. He has been here more than two years and that is all the Constitution requires.

Marshal Harrison destroyed three large blockade distilleries last week. One in Dawson, one in White and one in this county. Henry Kerley was found and arrested at the one in Dawson county. More than three thousand gallons of beer were destroyed at the three distilleries.

We never heard of a fellow being so anxious to be tried in a U. S. Commissioner's court as George Bart, colored, was one day last week. While at the Dickens county jail he learned that Marshal Harrison had a warrant against him and walked all day here to have his trial, but Mr. Harrison was out of town and the negro had to go back without being accommodated for awhile.

The Franklin and Beck families seem to be patronizing the marshal and Mayor very liberally. Last Tuesday just after some of them had had a hearing before Mayor Ingersoll for certain violations of the town ordinances, old man Beck and David Franklin, collided in the court house and passed several licks before they could be separated. During the fracas Tom "Timb" Franklin, who was standing near, got knocked down, after which others were struck with rocks and old man Franklin was cut on the arm with a knife by Goodman Beck. Several of them were fined one dollar and cost afterwards for their fun.

Mr. T. W. Seabolt, who has been engaged by some friends to make the race for sheriff, after due consideration of surrounding circumstances, has declined to do so. We think this a wise course of Mr. Seabolt, as he is a student of the X. G. A. College and will graduate in 1895. To become entangled in such a race as the one now programed, would probably make such a confusion upon his mind, either to be defeated or elected, that would prevent his graduation. There is no better young man in Georgia than Mr. Seabolt and we are glad that he has declined.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

There are twenty-one candidates for various county offices in Lumpkin and more expected.

Col. R. H. Baker had a corn shucking Wednesday and cribbed several hundred bushels of corn.

Some of the parties fined for fighting Tuesday are satisfying the law by working on the streets.

Mr. John Hutchinson requests us to state that he will make the race for sheriff without the use of any liquor.

Don't fail to see W. E. Woodward's Christmas gaudies and fruits. Nearest fine ever brought to town, and at the lowest prices.

A fellow who came to town to vote in the municipal election Saturday, had to hurry back in the country Monday.

A. F. Stow's team became frightened near Bearden's bridge Wednesday, while he was returning from Gainesville, ran away and demolished one wheel of the wagon.

Only seventeen more days until many little children will be glad by the arrival of Santa Claus, and most everybody will be happy except the poor distressed candidates.

Our readers will be glad to know that the school bill passed the House Tuesday by 132 to 11. The present legislature is certainly a friend to education in all its branches.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. S. R. Boyd, formerly of this place, in Atlanta last Tuesday morning. Her remains were brought to her home in Gainesville for interment.

Senator Lloyd has succeeded in getting his bill through the senate which provides that a jury shall be permitted to visit the scene of the crime for which the defendant is being tried when believed to be proper.

And still they come. Two more candidates appear upon the scene this week and make their announcements elsewhere. Mr. G. C. Wallace is asking the support of the voters for clerk of the superior court and Mr. J. H. Hutchison desires to be put in jail. No cleverer gentleman than these live in the county and if elected will transact the business of their offices with entire satisfaction.

Section 43 of the town ordinances of Dalhousie says: "If any person, by being drunk, or by selling, or by public places in said town, by cursing, swearing and otherwise indecently acting or by fighting or quarrelling, interrupting, or disturbing the peace and quiet of said town, such person shall be deemed guilty of disorderly conduct, and on conviction shall be punished as prescribed in section thirty-five of these ordinances." We will ask if this ordinance is being enforced?

Interesting Jay News. The new bridge across the river at this place is very much liked by physicians who have to visit this section at nights on account of so much sickness. Mr. John Riders boy is very low at this writing.

There is abundance of produce but the prices are low. Mrs. Gaddie, who died last week leaves 12 children to mourn her loss.

The friends of Miss Perdew will be glad to learn that she is improving after a spell of three months sickness.

Mr. Kirkham is improving from an accident that befell him by fracturing his arm caused from a fall while trying to catch a "little brown jug."

The citizens of Jay are proud of the recent increase of her population of a lady and gentleman. One is stopping at G. C. Wallace's and the other at Charles Perdew's.

Mr. John Jones has just had a corn shucking and cribbed a large amount of corn, some of the largest and finest ears ever seen.

R. C. Payne has sold out his farm and speaks of moving West. Guess who is going to get married Sunday. JAY.

The Mayor's Election.

A big vote was cast in the mayors election last Saturday, and the result was close. The friends of Mr. Harrison worked hard for his election from the time the polls opened until they were closed, while the candidates on the Townsend ticket didn't seem to take any interest at all—one of them not even voting.

It might be well enough to state that Prof. Gilliard's name was used on the other ticket without his permission and never did, so far as we know, give his consent to serve.

The usual drum drinking was indulged in until some of the voters became quite "foxy."

After the votes were counted and the election of the Harrison ticket was announced, a grand jubilee was had. While the boys burned up 500 10 gallons of gasoline and a wheelbarrow belonging to the town payers, to illuminate the city, the ones indulged in taking "tea," manufactured in some deep cave, regardless of their good standing as Sunday School teachers, in churches or temperance societies. The learned, the unlearned, the high and the low, the rich and the poor all got down upon a level. It was a gay time indeed.

The party, who is always crying out for temperance and down with the use of free liquor on election days, was so enthralled that he was unable to walk the rope, therefore this part of the program had to be dispensed with. Then the colored tamborene beater and banjo players were summoned to the scene and furnished music for the dancers and spectators until a late hour.

But now to the result of the election, which is as follows:

For Mayor: J. V. Harrison 79 W. B. Townsend 63 Harrison's majority 16 For Councilmen: W. S. Huff 79 W. H. McAfee 131 P. W. Hall 78 B. P. Gillard 79 W. J. Jenkins 77 J. W. Worley 69 A. F. Norton 60

Only five voters were cast on the question of repealing the hog ordinance. 68 for the repeal and 8 against.

Mr. Townsend and Mr. Jenkins claim that there are a large number of illegal votes cast and will commence a contest at once.

Who is it? Ed. SMOKE.

I see an article in a recent issue of your paper where some fellow said he knew a man that never fired a gun in the war but lay under a rock cliff and received no injuries, and when the war was over and all danger past he crawled out and posed as drawing a government pension and tells you the information that he voted for Tate under the promise of having his pension increased.

I only ask of you to give the name of your author and the pensioner in your paper so that every body may know who he is and not censure the honest pensioners or the honest voters with such slang as "business men needing reliable assistants can be supplied by addressing this school."

The Great Removal Sale.

Having determined to close out our entire stock of goods in Gainesville by Nov. 30. We will put on sale our dress goods, boots, shoes, etc., at actual no intentions of closing out.

COST. NOW:

The prices have been put on our goods and time will prove what we say is true. When we say cost, we mean cost. No one will doubt but what we have the most complete stock of dry goods that was ever brought to Gainesville. The ladies have already found out that our prices are as we represent them and have shown their appreciation by buying while they can secure first choice.

COUNTRY MERCHANTS,

Or merchants who are not accustomed to going to the Eastern Markets will find it to their advantage in calling and seeing our goods before placing their orders elsewhere. So remember the place to come when you wish to spend your cash. Respectfully,

What is Life?

What is life when the star of hope fades from the sky?
And mad tumults, at war in the breast,
Drive the sun like a wreck, east drift on the waves,
Far away from the haven of rest.

Every moment recalls some fond memory dear
Of loved scenes and sweet dreams that have fled,
And the heart sighs in vain of "the days of long ago."
When serene smiled the skies ever head.

Ever musing forlorn 'mid the fragments of shins
Of the days that return no more;
Bowed with sadness, we yearn for the happiness gone,
And the dark idols cherished of yore.

In this clime of sojourn—land of shadow and death—
We can never forget what's in store,
But no dream is so dear to the storm-battered soul,
As the visions of sweet, long ago.

But whatever betide, when the angel descends
To tell of all life's storms in the breast,
May we wake from the spell of his mystic wand,
In the Eden of infinite rest.

The New School Law.

The bill provides that for the first part of 1905 all money belongs to the common school fund shall be paid direct into the treasury and shall be used for no other than school purposes.

On March 31, June 30, Sept. 30 and Dec. 30 of each year the treasurer shall place to the credit of each county in the state its proportionate part of the school fund. On April 30, July 31, Oct. 31 and Jan. 31 of each year the county school commissioners shall transmit to the state school commissioner an itemized statement of the various sums due and unpaid by the county board of education.

When these statements shall have been made and approved by the state school commissioner and presented to the governor, the governor shall issue his warrants upon the treasurer for all the funds standing to the credit of each county.

The treasurer shall then draw his checks for the amounts of these warrants and they shall be sent by the state school commissioner to the county commissioners and they shall pay the money out for the various items for which it is due, and if it is not enough to pay the sums in full then it shall be prorated among the various items.

It is provided that the expenses of administration for each quarter shall first be paid in full and then the county boards of education are authorized to make their contracts in such a manner that the amounts payable to teachers for services rendered up to the end of the calendar quarter shall become due on the days specified above.

The bill makes the school year coincident with the calendar year, from January 1 to December 31. The entire school fund is to be apportioned to the different counties and the county boards are to meet in January each year and make arrangements for placing the schools in operation for that year.

Those counties having local school laws where schools are sustained by local taxation for a period of five months or more, the state school commissioner shall on the first of January, April, July and October of each year notify the governor of the amount of funds standing to the credit of each of these counties on these dates, and the governor shall issue his warrants for these sums and the treasurer shall draw his checks for them without requiring an itemized statement.

The most important section of the bill provides that the school fund for each year shall be a fixed and specified sum and in order to carry out this provision the state school commissioner, the controller-general and the treasurer shall on the first Tuesday of each year, make an estimate of what the school fund for the ensuing year shall be and this estimate shall be divided into four equal parts and each shall be available and payable at the times specified in the bill. If the specific taxes shall fall short of this estimate then the balance necessary to meet the provisions of the estimate is authorized to be paid from any fund in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, DEC. 14, 1894.

A fellow got so drunk one night last week that his mouth dropped open and his false teeth fell out.

Our all season office slippers are about "seen" their best days. Hope Santa Claus will not slight us Christmas.

Two more wild turkeys were killed near town last week—Mr. Geo. Duff and his ten-year-old son were the slayers.

There will be no Christmas tree at the Methodist church and the little ones will feel very much disappointed.

One of our subscribers, Mr. J. K. P. Head, comes to the front this week with two well developed Jersey twin calves.

Jess Satterfield, who was injured in the row during the October election is improving and is able to walk about in his yard.

In order to meet bills in market I will sell clothing at greatly reduced prices for the next thirty days. Dec. 7, 1894. J. F. Moore.

Rev. W. A. Parks, the newly appointed pastor of the Methodist church at Dahlonega, will arrive to-day and will preach next Sunday.

Col. Price introduced the local bill to increase the powers of the Mayor and Council of Dahlonega but it had to go over until the next session owing to the crowd of business.

Some of those who have been carrying nothing but the democratic banner heretofore have laid it aside for the purpose of voting a "mixed ticket" in the January election. Such is life.

A certain candidate for sheriff intimidated the other day that if we would give him our support that he would give us all the county advertising if elected. He was informed that we had nothing to say in the county election as they were all our friends and we could not take his bid.

Mr. J. B. Stringer, who announced himself for sheriff some time ago, requests us to state that he is not of the race, and does so in favor of no special candidate, but suggests that his friends support the one needing the office the most, qualifications to be considered of course.

NOTICE.
All accounts due me not settled by the 1st day of January, 1895 in some manner will be placed in the hands of a collecting officer. So, to save cost come at once and settle. Respectfully, Dec. 7, 1894 J. F. Moore.

Monday was a very warm day for the season—a thunder shower in the morning and so pleasant in the evening that the frogs which had been in winter quarters for many weeks "peeped out of their windows" and sang a spring like tune, which caused the office devil to start his voice off on "Gentle Annie" on a very high note which at first alarmed the neighbors for a quarter of a mile around.

We have recently received letters and money from various parts desiring the SIGNAL and Constitution. Some of the parties stated that they could get other papers (mentioning them) and the Constitution for $1.25, but they had rather give 25 cents more and get the SIGNAL. Our friends, let us know to realize that it is better to pay a little more and get a good paper, than to have "shoddy goods" put off on them.

A couple of gentlemen were up to Dahlonega last week looking out the best route for a railroad from here to Lila via the copper mine. Two or three routes are suggested, but the engineer after taking a "survey of the field" seems to think that the best and most practical one is to cross the river near the mine, come by the long tubes and reach Dahlonega through the old Master Ground. The gentlemen inspecting the route have gone back to Atlanta but will return in a few weeks with Prof. H. M. Hall for the purpose of making a survey, and then if the people of Dahlonega and Lila City desire to be connected by rail they can be accommodated by raising $600,000.

Mrs. Anno Smith, of LaGrange, is in Dahlonega and will spend two or three months with "the old folks at home."

Mr. A. W. Muehler, who has been teaching school at Watkinsville, returned to his home in Dahlonega this week.

Two cadets—LaFrad and Weaver, had a little fist fight on the square last Wednesday. No damage resulted to either.

When the elections are all over and Christmas passes the temperance society will begin to flourish and increase in membership.

The municipal contest will begin on Friday, the 21st inst. Townsends and Jenkins claim that there were 29 illegal votes cast against them.

The announcement of Mr. W. W. Dowdy appears in to-day's issue for tax collector of Lumpkin county. Mr. Dowdy is an honest, upright citizen and would make a good officer if elected. There are now four candidates for this office. Take your choice.

Mr. W. P. Gillispie of Half Way was in town Wednesday posting himself up on politics. He subscribed for the SIGNAL in order to keep posted. Mr. Gillispie is a strong democrat but he is not the kind that believes every body dishonest that does not belong to his party.

The prospecting at the copper mines in this county has suspended until it is seen what the people of Lila and Dahlonega propose to do about the building of the proposed railroad. If they do not act and that pretty soon, the copper mine company will build a tram way from the mine to Lila for the purpose of shipping its ore.

Marshall Harrison destroyed another large distillery in Chestatee district last Wednesday. While the officer and his escort were watching for some one to come in the morning to start up the "machine," a lady appeared and tore the sill out of the furnace and then having picked it up and started off with it, when he was pursued by the officer so close that he had to drop it in order to make his escape.

We are pleased to learn that our friend John Wheelchel, residing in Alabama, one of whose arms was thought would have to be amputated, is improving so as to enable him to discharge his duties as letter carrier. John writes that the physician believed he was bitten by a snake while on his recent visit to Dahlonega, but John says he has no recollection of it. The pain was intense, his arm having to be split open twice.

We are informed that one of the Chatten boys and Buck Evans visited Mr. Joe Davis' house last Sunday in an intoxicated condition and got up a row with Mr. Davis' children. It is said that Miss Maud Davis was pulled out of the house by the hair of her head, and some of her brothers and sisters were mistreated in like manner. Mr. Davis is absent from home in the West. Had he been present when this row took place there would have certainly been bad times.

Mr. Editor:
I notice in last weeks paper that you stated that Prof. Dunn has been a resident of the county for here years and can hold an office. I understand that the Professor is a Canadian and cannot hold any county office if it is true and he has not been naturalized since coming to the United States. Please inform us if this is a fact.

Last Monday was a very wet and disagreeable day, so much so that candidates couldn't travel.

A synopsis of the school bill as passed the house, will be found on the first page of to-day's paper.

Judge Williams has been suffering with rheumatism for several days and unable to attend to but very little business.

A little girl of Mr. Hulsey was severely burned in the face one day last week while starting a fire in the stove at Mrs. Blackwell with kerosene oil.

Gen. Murray, who has been spending some weeks here, looking after his gold mining interests in this section, left for his home in Tennessee latter part of last week.

A drummer was in town the other day proposing to sell fire crackers at 75 cents per box. Our last democratic congress must have credit for this. It gave cheap fire works and costly sugar.

D. M. Fowler of this county, has a couple of hogs not quite two years old that will weigh over 400 pounds each. Every candidate visiting Nimblerd district never fails to go to Mr. Fowler to see these hogs.

Several persons joined the temperance society which was held at the Methodist church last Sunday evening. Some pledged themselves to not drink any intoxicants for life while others were not willing to go into it for more than 30 days.

There are several cases of typhoid fever in the eastern portion of the county, but no deaths have occurred so far. Four of Mr. R. L. McGee's family—wife and three children—have just recovered and another child is thought to be taking it. Others are sick in the neighborhood.

Last Saturday night about 12 o'clock Mr. Joseph Smith, residing a few miles from town, was aroused from his slumber by some one who had forced their way into his house. He hastily arose, struck a match and got the glimpse of a negro as he was making his escape. As nothing was found missing it was supposed that the thief's flight was in search of Mr. Smith's store keys so as to enable him to gain entrance into the business house but a short distance away.

After an illness of a little more than two months, Mr. Charles Bennett, a student of the N. G. A. College, from Camilla, Mitchell county, Ga., passed away at the residence of Mr. Blacklocks in Dahlonega, on the morning of the 8th inst., in the presence of his mother, President Waddell, Dr. Wheelchel and several of the young men friends—aged about eighteen.

The young man had not enjoyed good health since his arrival, being unable to attend college more than 30 days on account of malarial diseases contracted in lower Georgia. At first it was hoped that the attending physician might be able to cure him, but he gradually grew worse and worse until his mother was notified of his dangerous condition, who came and remained at the bedside of her son until ten o'clock, the time appointed to leave with the remains for Canulla, both companies of the cadets formed a line in front of the boarding house and paid their tribute of respect by accompanying the body of their highly esteemed and much loved schoolmate to the top of Craney's Hill, his company marching in front with their guns at reversed arms, while the other followed behind the remains unarmed. Dr. Waddell and four of the cadets accompanied the corpse to its last resting place at Canulla, Ga.

There are thousands of poor men in Georgia both black and white, that are led by their taxes and cannot legally vote. Mr. McGee attempted to relieve them by introducing a bill in the senate last week, to amend the constitution so that all men could vote who were not tax defaulters the year prior to an election, but it was killed. Now, as the general assembly didn't see proper to relieve such defaulters, let them come and square up, else not attempt to vote. They have makes provisions for such settlements.

There is a large number of disqualified voters in Lumpkin county as well as all over Georgia, owing to their taxes at various years since the last adoption of the constitution—1877. All those in default should square up or not vote for it results in trouble and expense of contesting. There are men in this county to-day offering themselves for offices that cannot hold them legally if elected on account of being tax defaulters some years back. Only a few days ago a gentleman elected to represent his county in the legislature had to give up his seat because it was found that he became of age while from home at college and was in default of his taxes for two years. There are thousands of poor men in Georgia both black and white, that are led by their taxes and cannot legally vote. There are more than one school teacher in Lumpkin county that go to the school houses and sit all day without the appearance of a single scholar. The teachers get a salary this year and are compelled to be at their posts else forfeit their contracts with the county school commissioner. Mr. B. L. McGee, who has a contract to teach a school in Shoal Creek district, informed us Tuesday that the attendance has been decreasing ever since school pulling season until he has not had a single scholar in two weeks and his school likes two weeks being out. He came in to ascertain from the commissioner what to do Tuesday, and was told to go back and do the best he could. The Board met on that day and expected to remedy this if possible by passing an order for scholars next year to be taught on an average and grade, and compelling patrons to pay for all lost time at whatever amount is allowed per day by the state.

RINGING NOISES
In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing or humming sound, caused by catarrh, but exceeding disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or heing also result from catarrh. Hows, Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood.

We have had abundance of rain this week and miners are happy.

Sherriff Brooksher, Deputy Marshal Harrison and Judge Brittain visited Gainesville this week.

The weather has been so dry until this week that many of the wells in Dahlonega were perfectly dry.

Food's Sarsaparilla, noting through the blood, reaches every part of the system, and in this way positively cures catarrh.

Miss E. S. Minney was married to Bartow Montgomery last Sunday in Hightower district by Rev. A. F. Norton.

Miss Theodosia Goss and Mr. Alexander Spriggs were married last Sunday in the Western portion of this county by Squire J. B. Waters.

Dr. Wimburn and Tom Bell, of Chocoma were selling candy and we did not learn the object of the Doctors visit for he did not tell us.

Mr. J. T. Brown, the harness maker, whose shop is in the Hall Block, requests us to state that in addition to harness work, is ready to do all kinds of upholstering at reasonable prices.

We have printed 8,000 election tickets this week for different candidates—republicans, populists and democrats in Lumpkin county. All parties served at the same price. Send in your orders.

Had one desired to manufacture brick in Dahlonega this week we could have supplied them with several wagon loads of mud from the sidewalk leading from the office, already worked up and ready for the molds.

Rev. J. E. Sewell, of Rome, paid father-in-law, Mr. J. B. Bearden of this county, a visit a few days ago. He delivered an excellent sermon at Arnicaola camp ground last Sunday to a large and attentive congregation.

The editor the Nugget is congratulating himself and another gentleman who is interested in the mines here, because the hogs will not run at large. This is very natural, especially where there is danger of printing office and some gold mines being destroyed by hogs.

A Christmas tree will be given at the Baptist Church for the benefit of the S. S. scholars, and oh what a happy time it will be for the little ones when the superintendent commences calling out the many beautiful presents that will hang on the evergreen tree presented to them by some kind friend.

One matters not how old they become, who ever forget their happy childhood days. Speaking of Christmas and the thoughts of Santa Claus, brings to our memory that song which will never grow old: "Backward, turn backward, O, time in your flight, Make me a child again just for to keep. Back to sleep mother, rock me to sleep."

A Mothers Grave.
Earth has some sacred spots where we feel like loosening the shoe from our feet and treading with holy reverence, where common words of pleasures are unfeeling, places where friendship hands have lingered in each other, where vows have been blighted, prayers offered and tears of parting shed. O how the thoughts hover around such places and travel back through immeasurable space to visit them. But of all the spots on the green earth, none is so sacred as that where rests, waiting the resurrection, those we have loved and cherished, hence all ages, the better portion of mankind have chosen the loved spots for the burial of their dead and in those spots they have loved to wander at eventide to meditate and to weep alone. But among the choral houses of the dead, if there be one more sacred than the rest, it is a Mothers Grave.

Rev. W. H. McAttee preached at the Methodist church last Sunday.

Before Gen. Murray left for his home last week, he made Mr. Henry Roberts, who is at work for him, a present of a new town lot. Gen. Murray is certainly a warm friend to the poor, deserving laboring men, and is ever ready to render those that work for him such assistance as he sees they need. We wish Lumpkin county was full of such men as the General.

We regret to see so many men in this county that have grown up without being able to even write their names. Some time ago we got to talking to a man in this condition who had a good trade but had to hire some one to do his writing. We told him that people never got too old to learn. He said he intended to try. He hired a young person to teach him nights. Now this man not only writes his name but keeps his own books. So, you see, there is no excuse of any one not being able to write their names.

A few days ago a young Mr. Oscar Chastain began to pay his respects to a daughter of old man Wm. Franklin—Miss Beekie, of Dahlonega. The father of the daughter seemed to be displeased with the young man's appearance and told him he must go. He complied with the old man request, but not alone, for Miss Beekie went along by her lovers side until they reached Wier, in Dawson. At this place a Justice of the Peace caused them to join hands, and for more than a week their hearts have been beating as one. The father of the girl got in a good humor, lay aside his arms of war, went after the happy couple and brought them back to Dahlonega where they can rest under the same roof, sit at the same table and partake of the same food as that of the one who but a few days prior was an enemy, in perfect peace and harmony.

Mayor's Court.
Last Monday evening the Mayor's Court in Dahlonega resembled those held in Atlanta just after night's sleep.

A disturbance occurred Friday evening last by quite a number of both sexes getting full of the "red eye" at a colored ball at the Ten Cents Hall which caused about a dozen cases to be disposed of by Mayor Ingersoll—some having been guilty previous to this.

All tried were acquitted except Nelsa Haxhaw, proprietor of the Hall, Aaron Stephens and Ella Samorac. Nelsa was fined $5 and cost and the others $2 and cost each.

Belle Satterfield, a white female who it is said paid for the music of the occasion, failed to respond when her name was summoned. Also Jack Townsend, who was charged with disorderly conduct on another occasion.

Gone Home.

She looks so lovely so much
Has gone to rest;
Our Father called her home,
He thought it best.

Of this world's sin and strife
She never will know;
The paths that angels tread,
Her feet will go.

She was not given, but lent
For us to love;
But soon they missed her in
Her home above.

Then God's sweet messenger
Carried her home;
Safe there she'll ever stay,
No more to roam.

The tender Shepherd good,
Our lamb will keep;
Till, this life's race is past,
Once more we meet.

In endless peace and love
For aye to dwell,
With Him who ever doth
All things well.

Christmas Observances.

"A merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" was an old English greeting shouted from window to window and from street back to window again, but the Christmas tree, so dear to childish hearts, is undoubtedly of German origin, while the Christmas stocking comes from Belgium or France.

The original significance of the Christmas tree is apt to be overlooked in these later days; the children are seldom told that the evergreen was chosen as a representative of the Tree of Life; that the wax tapers are symbolic of the Light of the World, and the glistening gilt stars reflect the glory of the Star of Bethlehem.

The mistletoe bough has also a bit of history back of its present sentiment. It was regarded by the Druids with religious veneration, and its berries of pearl as symbolic of purity were associated by them with rites of marriage. From this the transition was slight to the lover's kiss beneath the transplanted branch, at Christmas time.

St. Nicholas, the patron saint of the Yuletide is in the Santa Claus of Holland, the Sanklaus of Switzerland and the Sonner Klaus of Holgoland. He does not always drive reindeer; in Belgium the children polish their shoes, fill them with oats, carrots or hay, and set them in the fireplace for their good St. Nicholas's beautiful white horse. In many parts of Switzerland, Germany and the Netherlands, he distributes his presents on St. Nicholas eve—the 5th of December—instead of Christmas eve.

In France, New Year's day is generally observed rather than Christmas for the distribution of gifts, and the children are not on the look-out for a big, jolly old man in fur, but for the dear, gentle Christ-Child. Jesus bambino, who comes with a convoy of angels loaded with books, toys, and sugar plums. In Austria they cling more closely to old legends and put candies in the windows on Christmas eve that the tender Christ-Child may not stumble and bruise his feet in passing through the village. Throughout Northern Germany the tables are spread and lights left burning during the entire night, that the Virgin Mary and the angel who go by when everybody sleeps, may find refreshments for their long journey.

In some places in Bohemia, they use the manger as the receptacle for the presents which the Christ Child brings, and they picture him as coming in a golden chariot drawn by milk-white horses.

In Alaska the Christ Child is represented—strange to say—by a young maiden dressed in white, with hair of lamb's wool hanging about her shoulders, her face whitened by flour and a crown of gilt paper set around with burning tapers. In one hand she carries a silver bell, and in the other a basket of sweet-meats.

The idea of feasting as a feature of the Christmas season prevails to such an extent, that in Norway offerings of little cakes are made through holes picked in the ice, to the Spirit of the Waters, and in staid old Devonshire, on Christmas Eve, the farmers vassal the apple trees in the orchards, wishing the trees all health and happiness.

"Peace on earth, good will toward men," prettily illustrated in the Scandinavian custom of shining the shoes of the entire household, great and small, and setting them close together in a row, so that during the year the family may live together in peace and harmony.

The Breton peasants have a pretty superstition that the cattle kneel down together at midnight on Christmas eve, and that they are given the power of speech during that one night, because their ancestors were present at the nativity.

In Poland, it is believed that on Christmas night the heavens are opened and the scene of Jacob's ladder is re-enacted; that the angels go and come at will on the golden span between heaven and earth, visiting their loved ones and comforting the poor and lonely.

How a Chinese Emperor is Married.

The marriage of the emperor took place in 1889, and the impress dweller presided over the occasion. The wedding is said to have cost about ten million dollars, and there were two pavilions built in the palace to contain the empress's wedding-dresses. I have before me a list of the robes the bride wore upon this occasion. She had on a silk head-dress of red, which was decorated with peacock's feathers, rubies, carnelians, coral, and blue feathers. Her person was covered with an embroidered court-robe decorated with pearls and fastened with diamond buttons. About her neck were two strings of coral beads, and in her ears were jewels. She carried a folded handkerchief, and she rode to the emperor's palace in a gorgeous sedan-chair. She was accompanied by eight eunuchs, and carried the chair. After entering the palace grounds the chair was carried over a brazier of live coals. Two imperial princesses helped her in and out of the chair, and as she got out she was given an apple, a golden sepiol, and a bottle containing pearls and gold coins. The emperor, who was dressed in full court costume, stood on the threshold of the palace, and as the future empress got out he took off her veil.

The two were then led to the bridal chamber, and the emperor took his seat on the left side of the bed, while the bride sat on the right with their faces turned toward each other. The princesses then requested the imperial couple to drink together. They ate a dish of wheat, the Chinese call "The Pudding of Sons and Grandsons," and drank together some wedding soup which is dignified by the name of "The Broth of Long Life." This ceremony concluded the marriage ceremony, though a marriage contract was signed.
